Ans:
1. While walking along the street the other day, I ran into a foreign friend.
2. He asked me how he could get to the Tainan Train Station.
3. Because I had never talked with foreigners in English before, I was stunned, unable to speak a word.
4. All I could do was pretend that I was in a hurry.
5. Instead of answering his question, I kept moving ahead.
6. Like most Taiwanese students, we are good at reading.
7. If asked to speak English, we are either afraid of making mistakes or too shy to express ourselves.
8. To learn English well, in my opinion, four language skills; that is, listening, speaking, reading and writing ability, should be equally stressed.
